

Me and My FASD

In partnership with the National Organisation for FASD, Seashell are proud to offer a three-day course, aimed at practitioners supporting a young person to understand their FASD diagnosis.

8th-10th June 2022 9:30am - 3:30pm, location TBC

£350 - including the practical Me & MyFASD tool kit (group rates available)

This innovative course will introduce the “Me and My FASD Toolkit” – a range of practical, hands-on materials specially designed with input from expert committees including young adults with FASD.

Participants will receive the toolkit of resources, including the Me and My FASD Break it Down Board, The Misunderstood: Living FASD game and Calming Cards.

The course is developed under a Department of Health and Social Care funded partnership and is quality endorsed by OCN (Open College Network)
